Tracey R. Brodnax

Tracey Brodnax is currently a Supervising Public Safety Telecommunicator for the East Orange Fire Department assigned to Fire Dispatch since November of 1992. She assists the public on a daily basis with fire reports as well as dispatch matters.

She was employed for approximately 6 years in the Banking Industry in New York City for East Rivers Savings, Dollar Dry Dock Savings and Bankers Trust as a Teller, Head Teller, Bond Redemption Clerk and Accounting Clerical. In addition, she was the State Delegate / Treasurer of the FMBA Local 423- East Orange Fire Dispatchers for eleven years. She currently is the Secretary for Firefighters League Advocating Minority Equality-F.L.A.M.E.. She has reinstated the 501c-non- profit status for the chapter as well as assisted in many duties of the organization.

She was born and raised in New York City by southern parents. Her parents instilled right and wrong values. This was the reason why she chose a position in Public Safety. She enjoyed finance which led to her first position in Banking. She currently resides in East Orange, New Jersey.
